THE SABBATH DAY

Senator Blair's Bill to Make It a Day of Rest and Worship

ADVOCATED BY THE AMERICAN SABBATH CONVENTION.

A Delegation Calls on the Senate Committee on Education and Labor—Sunday Newspapers Denounced—Export Statistics—Congressman Latrod Ill—Duty on Wool—National Notes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A large delegation from the American Sabbath convention appeared before the senate committee on education and labor to press for consideration and passage of Senator Blair's bill, to make the Sabbath a day of rest and of religious worship.

The speakers were Mrs. J. C. Bacon, C. B. Lloyd, A. S. Given, formerly of the Erie railroad, Rev. T. P. Stephenson and Rev. F. W. Conrad, all of the above favoring the bill.

Rev. Dr. Lewis, representing the Seventh Day Baptists, opposed the bill, or desired to have the Seventh Day Baptists, Seventh Day Adventists and Jews exempted from its operation.

Rev. W. F. Crafts, of New York, presented many documents bearing on the subject, including Cardinal Gibbon's letter, and stated that the petitions for the passage of the bill represented nearly fifty-four million persons.

When the convention met Thursday evening Professor Herrick Johnson, D. D., of Chicago, delivered an address against the Sunday newspaper. He said:

"The Sunday newspaper is the daily newspaper carried into Sunday, enlarged but not glorified or sanctified. It is a great mosaic, containing all sorts of material about the world, the flesh and the devil, and very often a great deal that is pernicious, vicious and unclean. It is pleaded that a necessity exists for the Sunday paper. That is absurd. The newspaper is here for money that is in it. It is keeping large numbers of newspaper workmen from the enjoyment of a day to which they are entitled.

"The Sunday newspaper is thrust upon the people upon the street on Sunday. Why is it that it is allowed to be thus sold on the street, while the ordinary peddler is required to keep the Sabbath day by stopping his business? If it is necessary to seek Sunday newspapers if persons desire them, not so with the Sunday newspaper—that is thrust into the home. It keeps the people from going to church and makes it harder for those who do want to do so regularly. It has invaded the quiet of the country to the detriment of the Sabbath. The boys who sell the papers are encouraged to trample upon the Sabbath, and its tendency is to deaden the sensibilities of the people of God."

Actors Asking Protection.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A committee consisting of Louis Aldrich, Harley Merry and Louis M. Sanger, representing the Actors' Order of Friendship, appeared before the Ford immigration committee yesterday to urge an amendment to the law which permits the importation of actors and musicians into this country. They ask protection against the large number of actors that are brought from abroad. This imported labor, they say, seriously affects the profession in this country, tends to lower salaries and deprives American actors of employment. The average salaries paid minor actors are stated at $40 per week. The actors want foreign minor actors who come into this country under contract and work for $16 per week, excluded under the contract labor law, the same as artisans, mechanics and other contract labor. They are now excepted from the operations of the contract labor law.

The committee promised to consider the subject, and see whether it was necessary to amend the law in order to remedy the defects of which the committee of actors complained.

Railway Mail Service Employees.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The postmaster general has completed the classification of the railway mail service employees under the civil service rules. They will be divided into ten classes, named as follows: A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, and J. The first class will include all those receiving an annual salary of $720 or less. While class J will include those receiving a salary of $2,000 and over. The intermediate classes include those receiving salaries between the amounts named above.

Local examination boards will be established in every congressional district throughout the country, and vacancies occurring on any line in a district will be filled from eligibles from that district, and in the case of a line running through several districts, candidates will be selected for the district according to the mileage of the line in that district. Vacancies in the important positions in the service will be filled on merit from the ranks.

Export Statistics.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Breadstuffs exports from the United States during November, aggregated in value $7,794,622, against $5,508,741 in November, 1887, and for the eleven months of the year ending November 30, were valued at $109,522,433, against $145,019,968 for the eleven months of 1887.

Cotton exports for November past were 794,677 bales valued at $38,932,210, against 785,421 bales valued at $37,584,473 during November last year.

Mineral oil exports during November past aggregated in value $4,259,784, against $4,710,014 in November, 1887, and for the eleven months ended November 30, this year, $52,519,492 against $11,246,286 for the eleven months of 1887.

Postmasters Resigning.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Postmaster General Dickinson said that within the last few weeks he had received the resignations of a considerable number of presidential and fourth-class postmasters, with the request that the Republic in whom they named and recommended be appointed in their places. Others have written asking if their resignations and recommendations of Republican successors would be favorably acted upon.

In response to an inquiry as to his action in the cases, the postmaster general said that no resignations had been or would be accepted that are made for the purpose of forestalling the action of the incoming administration by the appointment of Republicans.

Called on the President.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The delegates to the American Sabbath union convention now in session here called on President Cleveland Thursday. There were about fifty in the delegation. They were introduced to the president by Dr. Sunderland, pastor of the church which President Cleveland attends, and who is also a delegate to the convention.

Representative Latrod Ill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A great deal of anxiety has been felt by the friends of Representative Latrod, of Nebraska, in this city as to his state of health. It was reported here yesterday that he was seriously ill. To day his regular physician in this city received a telegram from him giving an account of his illness. The pronounced his terms melancholia, brought on by the fatigue and worry of the recent election, and advised him to leave Europe Springs, Ark., where he is now staying, and come on to Fort Monroe, Va.

Duty on Wool.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A committee appointed by the wool manufacturers and commission merchants of New York, with Mr. Walter Stanton as chairman, who have come to Washington to urge the passage of the Breckinridge resolution, relative to the duty on wool and woolsens, waited on Secretary Fairchild, Thursday, to discuss that measure and if possible to secure his cooperation. The secretary said he had nothing to add to what he had already said in his annual reports on this subject.

THE CANADIANS.

Congressman Butterworth's Resolution Excites Them.

THE ANNEXATION TIGMY DEVELOPING INTO A GIANT.

The Expressions of Public Feeling During the Past Two Months Not Equalled Since the Famous Manifesto of Fifty Years Ago—Commercial Union a Cover for Annexation.

MONTREAL, Dec. 15.—The publication here of the resolution introduced into the house of representatives by Mr. Butterworth, of Ohio, has a startling effect. Everybody is discussing it, and everybody is looking forward anxiously as to what course the senate and house of representatives will pursue.

Never since the famous annexation manifesto of fifty years ago has there been such an expression of public feeling as during the past two months. A leading commercial union member of parliament told your correspondent that undoubtedly the issue at the next general election would be annexation, and that it was an open secret that it would be the leading plank in the Liberal platform. Butterworth's resolution had put a different phase on the question.

The member did not think it would pass both houses without a good deal of delay, but the probabilities were that eventually the United States would invite Great Britain and Canada to appoint a commission. In that case it would be an impossibility to "scotch" the question in parliament, and the Liberal chances of getting into power would be proportionately strengthened. Whether the Conservatives would take the chances of defeat by a blind opposition he was not prepared to say.

It is likely that when the Tories came to realize fully the strength of public feeling on the subject of annexation, they would advocate commercial union and come to a sort of amicable compromise, which would settle the present commercial difficulties with the United States, thus doing away with the immediate necessity for annexation. The great objection of Conservative politicians to annexation is the loss of power, and the course outlined above might give them a renewal of their lease of office for a few years.

"The mask is off at last," said Tallion, Conservative leader in the provincial parliament. "We have held all along that commercial union was disguised annexation, and here now is Butterworth, the most pronounced advocate of the former policy, coming out boldly for annexation. Loyal Canadians will have to kill the pigny soon, as it is fast growing into a giant."

The Star, in speaking of annexation had a sentence which is suggestive, in view of its recent utterances denying the existence of any annexation feeling in Canada. It said: "Everybody knows that there are among us those who take the view that Canada would be much better off if she were part and parcel of the American republic."

A Counter Proposal.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 15.—The minister of customs, on being asked for his views on the Butterworth annexation resolution, just introduced into the house of representatives, laughed and said he had heard it stated that a counter proposal would be made to buy the United States, as it would be infinitely better for that country to be under a well-defined system of responsible government than under the irresponsible system now existing. Speaking seriously, however, he thought Butterworth's proposal simply verified the charge preferred by a majority of the Canadian people against Winman and Butterworth, that from the start their commercial union cry was simply a cover for annexation.

Two Senators' Opinions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Senator Frye, a member of the committee on foreign relations, was shown a copy of Mr. Butterworth's resolution by a representative of the United Press. After looking it over Mr. Frye said: "In my opinion commercial union is a commercial absurdity. This scheme is not practicable, because if there is to be annexation the suggestion and the first move must not come from us. If the Canadian provinces are ever annexed, it will be because they desire to be annexed."

Senator Callom said: "I am in favor of the annexation of all or any part of Canada. Of course these things cannot be done in a week."

SADLY AFFLICTED.

An Old Lady Who Maintains That She is Mrs. President Cleveland.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—A little old lady, dressed in black silk, landed from the bus at the Grand Pacific hotel last Thursday, and was assigned to a parlor on the lower floor. She gave the clerk a card, upon which was written "Mrs. Frances Cleveland, Detroit."

Mrs. Cleveland had her meals served in her room and was very quiet and well behaved, though Sunday a housemaid reported at the office that Mrs. Cleveland was acting rather queer. A hotel officer called upon Mrs. Cleveland. She insisted that she was Frances Folsom Cleveland, and talked very incoherently. She was sent to the Home of the Friendless. She was released Tuesday from the home, went again to the Grand Pacific and complacently installed herself in her old room. The hotel officer then took her to the armory police station. The woman said she had a sister, Mrs. Blehm, in Detroit, and another, Mrs. Julian Davis, in Cairo, Ill. She was taken to the detention hospital for the insane last evening.

Killed by a Falling Tree.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 15.—A Seven's Point, Wis., special to the Daily Journal, says: The trestle work on the inside stand pipe being erected here by the water works company fell to-day, killing four men, seriously wounding two more. One of the men killed is Charles Myers, of this city, and he leaves a widow and three children. The other men killed live in Phillipsburg, N. J.

JAMES G. GETS THERE.

Blaine Said to Have Accepted the Secretary of State Portfolio.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The Star makes the following announcement very prominently:

"The Star learns, on good authority, that President-elect Harrison has tendered the portfolio of secretary of state to James G. Blaine. Blaine at once announced his acceptance of the appointment. The letters which passed between the president-elect and Blaine will be made public within a few hours. They are brief and highly complimentary."

Senator Hale Interviewed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Senator Hale, who is probably nearer to Mr. Blaine than any other man in Washington, was asked by a representative of the United Press what he knew about the statement that Mr. Blaine had been offered a place in the cabinet of President Harrison.

Mr. Hale said: "I know nothing about the matter. I have received no information on the subject. It would not surprise me to hear that Mr. Blaine had been offered the position. He is not in line for anything else in the gift of the incoming administration."

"Do you think Mr. Blaine would accept the office?" the senator was asked.

"I know no reason why he should," not was the reply. "I do not think he has ever said that he would, but I do not see why he should refuse."

"Will the state of his health permit him?"

"Oh, yes. Mr. Blaine's health is good enough."

Platt Don't Believe It.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The Telegram publishes an interview with ex-Senator Platt, with regard to the report that Mr. J. B. Blaine had accepted the portfolio of secretary of state, in which that gentleman characterizes the report as bosh. Mr. Platt further stated, according to the Telegram, that he did not believe that Blaine had accepted the portfolio or that Gen. Harrison had tendered it to him; that the story had been started by a correspondent of a Cincinnati paper, and that it was sent to every journal in New York, but that it was only published by a few.

Harrison Refuses to Talk.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—Gen. Harrison, when asked about the report that Mr. Blaine had been offered the position of secretary of state, refused to say anything whatever about the matter, relating that he could not allow himself to be placed in the position of affirming or denying reports, as to his attentions. The report is not believed here by anybody.

SEEKING STATEHOOD.

Steps Now Being Taken for a Grand Territorial Convention.

BISMARCK, Dak., Dec. 15.—Communications have been received here from the territories of Wyoming, Montana and Washington calling upon the leaders in Dakota to take steps toward the holding of an inter-territorial convention, which will act in the interest of admission for all the territories that are properly equipped for statehood. It is quite likely that such a convention will be held.

Dakota is one grand mass meeting at present, and will so remain until she becomes a state. Every town and city in the territory is holding meetings and buying torches, and every orator is giving his lungs an abundance of exercise.

Every man who owns a house or an acre of land feels confident that statehood will add to the value of his property, and every community feels that it is being held back by the fact that Dakota is still a territory.

The legislature will convene January 8, and it is expected that one of its first acts will be to call a constitutional convention and take other preliminary steps toward statehood. In nearly every legislative district the members have been instructed in favor of the division of the territory, and there will be virtually no opposition to calling a constitutional convention for North Dakota.

OHIO'S STATE GRANGE.

Officers of the Patrons of Husbandry Elected at the Lima Session.

LIMA, O., Dec. 15.—At the meeting of the Ohio State Grange officers were elected as follows: Worthy master, S. H. Ellis, of Warren county; overseer, Isaac Freeman, of Miami county; steward, R. W. Coulter, of Highland county; assistant steward, A. R. Merrick, of Van Wert county; lecturer, B. F. Swingle, of Knox county; treasurer, Henry Talcott, of Ashland county; secretary, T. R. Smith, of Delaware county; chaplain, G. M. Meskenner, of Coshocton county; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Lizzie Crouse, Piquette; Mrs. S. O. Eggart, of Stark county; gate keeper, L. F. Smith, of Crawford county.

Greasers Inuitied.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—A Herald special from the City of Mexico says: Senator Morison, minister of foreign affairs, referring to President Cleveland's message, said he believed it would be difficult to arrange a reciprocity treaty now. This is due to delay, and besides Mexicans consider that the report of the congressional committee on the subject is insulting.

Business Reviving at Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 15.—Fourteen returned refugees were fined $100 each yesterday, for staying in the city over night, but the fines were remitted on condition that the offenders will go out of town at night until after the 15th inst. Nearly one hundred refugees returned yesterday. The streets are lively and business brisk.

Was the Whisky Trust Responsible?

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The Herald's Chicago correspondent telegrams an interview with Mr. Lynch, of the Shufeldt Distilling company, in which that gentleman intimates that criminal charges will be made against certain members of the whisky trust in connection with the recent dynamite explosion at the Shufeldt distillery.

Half a Million for Georgia Schools.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 15.—The house of representatives has appropriated $500,000 for the common schools of Georgia, and the bill will go through the senate.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
 Proprietors.

SATURDAY EVE., DEC. 15, 1888.

Ohio will come in for a pretty snug sum under the Direct Tax Refunding bill. Her portion amounts to $1,567,089.

ANOTHER war with the South is the only thing that will satisfy the sanctimonious editor of the New York Mail and Express.

THE Butter Trust in New York ran the price of first-class butter up from 30 cents to forty-six cents in ten days. The Butter Trust should be fed on butterine.

If the River and Harbor bill passes Congress as it reached the House, it will knock about $12,000,000 off of the pile of surplus money in the Government Treasury.

So BLAINE is to be Secretary of State under Harrison. The announcement of this news should not cause surprise. That has been the programme all along. It is to be a Blaine administration.

The man who declared that "trusts are private affairs" with which the government has no right to interfere is to be Secretary of State under Harrison. Trusts will flourish under the next administration.

The eloquent voice of Hon. A. S. Berry, the "Tall Sycamore of the Licking," will not be heard in the next Legislature. He has tendered his resignation as State Senator to accept the Mayoralty of Newport.

ADAMS COUNTY, OHIO, paid out over $3,000 for printing and stationery during the year ending August 31st, 1888. The official printing and the stationery here in Mason County for the same period amounted to but a few hundred dollars.

AMERICAN mills manufacture nearly twice as much goods as the "home market" requires. Either this "home market," which Republicans love to talk about, will have to be enlarged or some of the mills will necessarily be compelled to remain idle.

In Mercer County, W. Va., there were 900 more Republican votes polled at the recent election than in 1884. Within the past week or so it is reported the grand jury of the county found 700 indictments for illegal voting. You can draw your own conclusions.

REPUBLICAN papers are wasting much time and ink trying to explain away Cleveland's majority of about 100,000 on the popular vote of the country. With all their talk they know he would now be President-elect if the popular vote had decided the late contest.

KENTUCKY's share under the direct tax bill will amount to over $713,000, if the President doesn't veto the measure. The Democratic Representatives from the Commonwealth thought the bill wrong, and voted against it. It was a grab game in which they declined to join.

"The total production of the silk manufactures of the United States," says the Louisville Times, "exceeds $60,000,000. The secret of the prosperity of this industry lies in the fact there is no tax on the raw material. With free and untaxed wool the mills now idle would start up and the people would have cheaper and better clothing, blankets and carpets, and the woolen industry would become as prosperous and as profitable as the silk."

This country promises to be plastered all over with trusts at no distant day. The rail manufacturers at Wheeling and the insurance men at Chicago have each formed a combine, and the manufacturing chemists are preparing to follow suit. Why shouldn't the tobacco-growers and farmers go and do likewise? The one object is to throttle competition and put prices up, and the farmers have got to combine and protect themselves, if they wish to thrive.

The New York World has interviewed a number of leading negroes in the South—ministers, teachers, ex-legislators and such—and it is worthy of notice that none of them knew personally of any intimidation of colored voters and nearly all declared that nothing of the kind was attempted by the whites. Republican editors of the North, however, know more about the matter than the negroes of the South. At least one would come to that conclusion from a perusal of such journals as the Chicago Tribune and the New York Mail and Express.

The Maysville Republican in publishing "some of the results" of Harrison's election omits to mention the following, whether intentional or not we do not pretend to say:

On Saturday night the last cutting machine in the new tube mills of the Reading Iron Works shut down and the entire mill ceased operation for indefinite period. One hundred and thirty-five men have been thrown out of employment, and they have been told that dullness of trade is the cause of the misfortune. This is from the Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot. The Patriot comments on the item in terse language as follows:

This and the other suspensions of industries which have taken place since the election of Benjamin Harrison bring to mind the promises and predictions made by the Republican party during the Presidential campaign. The workmen were told that in the event of the success of the Republican ticket business men and capitalists would invest their money in new enterprises, there would be more demand for labor and in short general prosperity would follow the defeat of Grover Cleveland. General Harrison has been elected to the Presidency of the country, but the empty pledges of the Republican blatherers have not been fulfilled.

"The people of the Ohio Valley, of Cincinnati and all the cities along the river, who are intelligent enough to know their own interests, will bear with impatience of the throwing out of employment of 5,000 men in the Monongahela Valley by the stoppage for an indefinite time of coal mining because coal is too abundant and cheap.

"This, when we are, on account of the formation of a coal trust, paying 20 per cent. more than usual for fuel, is about as provoking a thing as we ever heard of. The next time the coal kings go howling about strikes against them we shall not be deeply moved by their sufferings.

"The strike against cheap coal by the coal mine owners on the Monongahela is a strike by capital against labor, and is opposed to public policy and is the meanest strike we have heard of in a year."

This sounds like good Democratic talk, but it is taken from that rank Republican journal, the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. We referred to these 5,000 coal miners some days ago. It's pretty hard on the poor fellows to be thrown out of employment just at the beginning of winter, but the coal barons must have a big price for coal, and the only way to secure that is to lessen the supply and the only way to lessen the supply is to close the mines and discharge the miners.

The Minstrels.

George Wilson's minstrels drew a good crowd to Mucanley's last night. It is a very good company, and many novelties are introduced. The first part, where the white and blacks are mingled, is quite striking. The vocalists are remarkably good and some of the specialties receive warm applause. George Wilson and Billy Carter are the same as ever. Master Daval, the contortionist, is a positive wonder, and the magic necromancy of Powell and "Little Ennie" are a good feature of the programme.—Louisville Post, September 4, 1888.
